

Answers

1 The third layer of the earth is the outer core.

2 The movement of rocks and sand by flowing water or wind is called erosion.

3 Mountains, valleys, hills and plains are all landforms of the crust.

4 A volcano is an opening in the earth's crust.

5 An earthquake is the shaking of the surface of the earth.